

THE

[NUMB. 831.]

South-

Carolina

Gazette.

From MONDAY April 9th, to MONDAY April 16th, 1750.

The Remainder of An ACT to regulate the Price and Affize of BREAD.

Passed the 16th Day of March, 1749 50.

AND be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the commissary-general for the time being of this province, and in case of his absence or sickness, the public treasurer, shall and is hereby required, upon the best information he can get, to publish monthly, in the South-Carolina GAZETTE, the current price of fine flour at Charles-Town; which price so publish'd, shall be deemed and taken, from time to time, as the ordinary price of such flour for the month ensuing.

And, to the intent that the good design of this act may be effectually complied with, be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every common baker and other person, who shall make or bake for sale, or any ways expose to sale, any of the sorts of bread herein before mentioned, shall from and after the expiration of the said thirty days next ensuing the passing of this act, fairly imprint or mark, or cause to be fairly imprinted or marked, on every loaf so by him or her made or exposed to sale, the price of such loaf, together with the initial letters of the name of the baker thereof, whereby the said baker and price of such bread may be distinctly known. And if any baker or bakers, or other person or persons baking or making such bread for sale, and exposing the same to sale, shall not observe the affize ascertained by virtue of this act, or shall bake or make for sale, or sell or expose to sale, any soft white, wheaten or household bread wanting the due weight, or that shall not be marked according to the direction of this act, or shall in any sort or way break or infringe any of the matters or things appointed by the same, he, she or they so doing, being thereof convicted, by the confession of the party, or by the oath of one or more credible witnesses or witnesses, before one or more justices of the peace of the county wherein the offence shall be committed, shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of twenty shillings proclamation money, to be levied by way of distress, upon the goods and chattels of every such offender, by warrant from the said justice or justices before whom such conviction shall be made; which forfeiture shall be for the use of, and given to the informer or informers.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if any baker or seller of bread in this act mentioned, shall put into any such bread by him or her sold or exposed to sale, any mixture of any other grain than what shall be absolutely necessary for the well making or baking thereof, to be judged of by the justice or justices trying and examining the same, every such person so offending, shall, for every such offence, forfeit all such bread so fraudulently mixed, for the use of the poor of the parish where the offence shall be committed; and also, the sum of twenty shillings proclamation money, for the use of the informer or informers, to be had and recovered in the manner and form herein before mentioned. Provided always, that no person shall be convicted in Manner aforesaid, for any of the before mentioned offences, unless the prosecution in order to such conviction be commenced within three days next after the offence committed.

And, that the good design of this act may be the more effectually accomplished, be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawful, to and for any one or more justice or justices of the peace, within their respective counties, at all times hereafter, in the day time, to enter into any house, shop, stall, bake-house, ware house, or out-house, of, or belonging to any baker or seller of bread, there to search for, view, weigh, and try all or any of the bread mentioned in this act, of such person, or which shall there be found: And if any such bread shall there be found, wanting either in the goodness of the materials whereof the same should be made, or be deficient in the due baking or working thereof, or shall be wanting in the due weight, or shall not be truly marked, according to the directions of this act, or shall be mixed with any other grain, or of any other sort than is allowed by virtue of this act; then, and in every such case, it shall and may be lawful to and for such justice or justices of the peace, to seize and take the said bread so found, and cause the same to be forthwith given and distributed to the poor of the parish where such seizure shall be made. And if any baker or seller of bread, or other person or persons, shall not permit or suffer such search or seizure to be made, or shall oppose, hinder, or resist the same, he, she or they so doing, shall, for every such offence, forfeit the sum of four pounds proclamation money aforesaid, to the use of the poor of the parish where the offence shall be committed, to be had and recovered in the summary manner and form herein before first mentioned.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if any person convicted of any offence against this act, shall think him or herself aggrieved, he or she shall or may immediately, or within three days after such conviction, make his or her appeal in writing to any three justices of the peace for the parish or county where such conviction shall be made, by whom the same shall be heard and finally determined, within ten days after such appeal made: And if the said person so appealing, shall not make good his or her appeal, or prosecute it with effect, the said justices shall award such costs as they shall think reasonable to the prosecutor or informer, and commit the offender to the common goal, until he or she shall make payment of the said costs, and also of the penalty adjudged on the conviction to the informer. But in case the said appellant shall make good his or her appeal, and be discharged of his or her said conviction the like reasonable costs shall be awarded to the appellant, against such informer, who should (in case of conviction) have been intitled to the said penalty, to be recovered as aforesaid.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if any action or suit shall be commenced or brought, against any person or persons whatsoever, for doing or causing to be done any thing in pursuance or execution of this act, or relating thereto, the defendant, in every such action or suit, may plead the general issue, and give the special matter and this act in evidence: And, if the plaintiff be nonsuited, or discontinue his action, or a verdict be given against him, or judgment be otherwise given for the defendant, every such defendant shall have and be allowed his double costs. Provided nevertheless, that no person punished by virtue of this act, shall be for the same offence prosecuted by any other law, statute, usage or custom whatsoever. And provided also, that this act shall continue in force for three years, and from thence to the end of the next sessions of the general assembly of this province, and no longer.

L O N D O N,

December 12. We hear that of the 18,000 Men on the Establishment of Great-Britain this Year, 6000 will be kept on Road-Duty in Scotland; as well as to protect the Vassals of that Kingdom, during the Operation of the new Laws for abolishing the Tyranny of Highland Chiefs.

Murton, from London, a choice parcel of womens and childrens stays, mens boots, double chanell'd, single chanell'd and turn'd pumps, womens turn'd leather pumps, boys shoes, and sundry other goods, that will be sold very reasonable at my store in Church-Street.

Joseph Ward.

To be Sold, a Plantation in Prince Frederick's parish, pleasantly situated bluff on Black-River, but 20 miles from George-Town, containing 500 acres, of fine planting land, and may be divided into two tracts. There is a small dwelling-house on it, and a ferry kept there, and is a very convenient place for a store. Any person inclined to purchase, may have it reasonable and on some credit of William Sanders.

Who remedies the smoaking of chimnies. Enquire for him on Troit's point.

To be Sold by the subscriber a plantation on Goose-Creek road, and opposite to that formerly doct. Martini's, containing 189 acres, whereon is a parcel of very good pine fit for sawing, and would suit any tradesmen very well, it has likewise on it a good dwelling-house wherein Henry Rigby lived and out houses. The purchaser may have six or seven years credit, paying interest, and giving security if required to Mary Smith.

HENRY BURNETT House and Ship-Carver from London, gives this Notice, to all persons who may be pleased or have occasion, to employ him in the said business, that their work shall be done in the neatest and best manner, and on the most reasonable terms. Enquire at Mr. Thomas Bonny's on Elbert's wharf.

To be Sold at public vendue, on thursday the 3d of May next, by the subscriber, a lot of land situate (on the broad road) in Ansonborough, with a good timber dwelling-house thereon, divided into two tenements, having 4 rooms in each, and kitchen, well, garden, &c. The lot is 21 feet 9 inches in width, and 200 in depth. Any person inclin'd to purchase, may treat with David Christina.

Strayed into my pasture at Goose-Creek, a bright bay horse with a black main and tail, about 13 hands and a half high, branded upon the near shoulder and buttock, on the shoulder with something like N with an I under and a figure of 3, and on the buttock with an M or N and O but not distinct. Whoever owns the said horse, may apply to Robert Brown.

As very little notice has been taken of my late advertisement in this Gazette, this is once more, and for the last time, to desire all persons indebted to me, upon bond, note of hand, or book, to discharge the same on or before the first of June next, or they will (contrary to my inclination) be all put into an attorney's hands.

JOHN MARTINI.

The house I now live in, and the two tenements opposite, are to be sold: Any person inclin'd to purchase, may treat with me.

Just imported in the Two Sisters, capt. Murton, and to be sold wholesale or retail, at the lowest rates, by SAMUEL CARNE, on the bay, a fresh assortment of druggs and family medicines, pickles, paints, teas, and spices. Also cordial waters of all kinds, and a small assortment of dry goods.

Just imported by William Rind, a parcel of fresh DRUGGS, in Capt. Murton from London, to be sold altogether, at a very low price, as he intends soon for London.

Shortly will be published,

A TREATISE

Upon the Importance and Means of securing The CHACTAW Nation of INDIANS in the British Interest.

In which are interspersed many curious REMARKS

Concerning the History, Policy, and Interest of that Nation.

With

Several incontestable Reasons, and chronological Observations, to prove, that the Year of our Lord 1738 was several Years antecedent to the Year 1747.

To which is added,

A genuine ACCOUNT Of the most remarkable OCCURRENCES since that Period of Time.

Concluding with

Some SCENES of a FARCE, as the same was some time ago first rehearsed in private, and afterwards acted publicly; in which are contained, some comical and instructive Dialogues between the several modest Pretenders to the Merit of a certain REVOLT, said by them to be lately projected and effected.

The whole supported by Records, original Letters, and living Witnesses.

What should be grave, you turn to Farce.

June next, under the New-Market in Charles-Town, BULL'S-IS- LAND, containing about 1500 acres of land, fit for rice, corn and indico; it is well known to be one of the best lands in the government, for stock and timber, none of the latter having been cut down for any use whatsoever; it is full of live-oaks for building ships, (and so convenient for that purpose, that a first rate man of war may lie close to a bluff) or to launch a vessel of any burde-
There are a great many fresh-water ponds upon the island, that never dry in the dryest seasons of the year, which makes the case thrive more on it, than any other island in the province. The stock upon it 300 head of cattle, and a 100 head of sheep, will be sold with the island. There is a very good house upon it, and timber laid down to build a pinch round it. Any one inclinable to chase it, may know the terms of Glen & Cooper, and find an undoubted title.
